

Message from the Headteacher

We have fantastic news to celebrate this week with the SATs results from the children in Year 6. I am so pleased and proud of their achievement and progress this year. I wanted to give you the good news of their results so you can share our successes! You can see how much the results have improved since last year. This means that all of our results across the school from Reception through to KS2 are much improved on last year putting us into a good position moving into 2015/16.

PROGRESS

Children who made two levels of progress during KS2 - this could be from Level 1 to 3, Level 2 – 4, Level 3 – 5.
