

Celebrating the 'Love of Reading'

World Book Day

World Book Day is Thursday 1st March 2018 and children will be issued with a £1 book token. The official website can be found at <http://www.worldbookday.com/>

We will be celebrating this over two weeks with the following events:

Book Fair

I am pleased to announce The Book Fair will be open in the school hall on the following times:

Thursday 22nd February 3:20pm - 4:15pm

Friday 23rd February 3:20pm - 4:15pm

Monday 26th February 3:20pm - 4:15pm

Tuesday 27th February 3:20pm - 4:15pm

The children will have the opportunity to browse the books prior to the above times. Fast selling books can be ordered and they will be delivered to the school on Wednesday 28th February. These must be paid for when placing the order.

Dressing Up Day

On Friday 2nd March 2018 the children (and staff) can come to school dressed as animals. Suggested donations of £1 are to be given to the class teacher during morning registration.

Theatre visit

The children will be watching Jungle Bungle by The West End in Schools Theatre Group. The show promotes a 'love of books' and will feature the following books:

How to Heal a Broken Wing by Bob Graham

Where the Wild Things Are by Maurice Sendak

Danny the Champion of the World by Roald Dahl

The Huge Bag of Worries by Virginia Ironside. Illustrations by Frank Rogers.

If children are familiar with these books they will recognise them in the show. Also, the children can learn the songs prior to the performance so that they can join in on the day. The lyrics can be found at:
